Situation Among Peasantry Is One of Unrest.

TROOPS ARE NOT FAITHFUL

Government is Afraid to Send Detachments of Troops Into the Villages Because They Are Not to be Trusted.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 13 .- Ominous, of the government's ability to cope with the prospective disorders, is the news from Poltava that the government is daily in receipt of requests for troops for protection of estates from peasants. who are not stayed in fear of the rural guards. The government is unable to comply with these requests because the local troops, one regiment of which mutinied Sunday, are so infected with the revolutionary propaganda that a detachment sent to the villages will immediately fraternize with the peasants, The governor therefor begs the St. Petersburg authorities to send fresh troops. Final conference between the employers and printers, whose strike produced a general strike last October, is being held tonight. If it be fruitless, the result will be a lockout of printers and probably a sympathetic factory
